The Notice and Note Signposts

| Signposts and Definitions | The Clues to the Signposts | Questions To Stop and Ask Yourself |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Contrasts and Contradictions: A sharp contrast between what we would expect and what actually happens. | 1) A character behaves or thinks in a way that we don't expect;  2) An element of a setting is something that we would not expect | 1) Why would the character act this way?  2) What does that unexpected element mean? |
| An AHA! Moment:  A character realizes something that changes his understanding of himself, others, or the world around him. | Phrases or words that usually express a quick change: suddenly... came to me in a flash . . . in an instant, I knew . . . | How might this change things? |
| Tough Questions:  Questions a character asks that reveal inner struggles. | Phrases suggesting doubt or confusion:  What could I possibly do?  How could I ever understand . . .?  Suddenly nothing made sense . . .  How can I cope with . . .? | What does this question make me wonder about?  What will the character do to solve this? |
| Words of the Wiser:  The advice another character, usually older and wiser, offers about life to the main character. | The main character and the other one are usually alone in a quiet, serious moment; the wiser one gives advice to help the other with a problem or decision. | What does the advice mean, and how might it affect the main character? |
| Again and Again:  Events, images, or words that are repeated in part or all of the story. | A word or phrase is used, sometimes in an odd way, over and over.  An image or something physical appears several times in the course of the book. | Why might the author be doing this again and again? |
| Memory Moments:  A character stops and remembers something; the memory interrupts the forward progress of the story. | The flow of the narrative is interrupted by a memory that comes to a character, often taking up several paragraphs before we get back to the present moment. | Why might this memory be important?  How does it connect to the current situation? |

